

Different imputation techniques for synthetic, highly correlated, three-dimensional data where some x-values are missing

Blue dots represent the actual data and red dots the imputed data.
For kNN and linear imputation, the variable z has been used to estimate x.

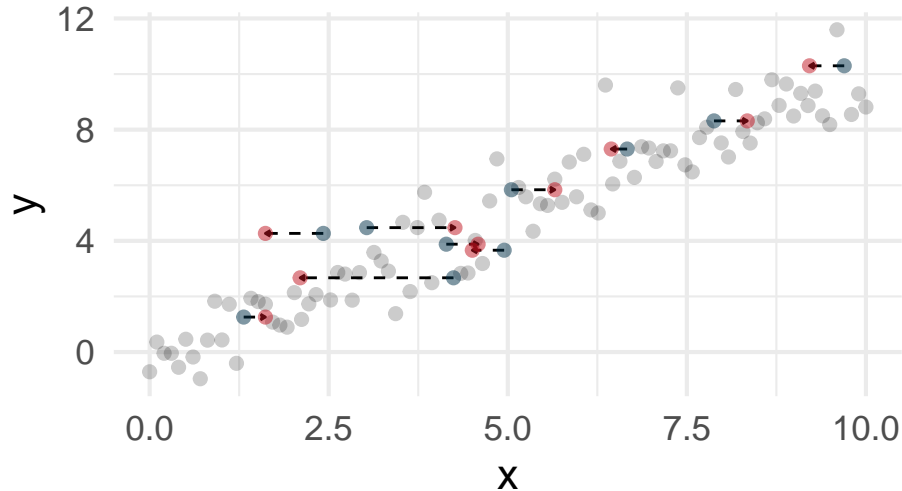

Mean imputation

Median imputation

kNN imputation

Linear imputation

